

RSA

Cheltenham
Science Festival
8-12 June 2005

in association with

RSA Lecture, Cheltenham
The Road to Reality
Sir Roger Penrose
Thursday 9 June 2005 @ 6.30pm
In association with Cheltenham Science Festival

Cost £7 (£6 concessions) book via Cheltenham Festivals, call 01242 227979 or www.cheltenhamfestivals.org.uk advance booking is necessary

World renowned mathematician Sir Roger Penrose is considered one of the greatest living scientists. His new book The Road to Reality is the product of a lifetime's study and provides a clear account of our understanding of the physical universe. Join him at this RSA event to discover the big questions, philosophical implications and logical interconnects that make the universe we inhabit such a beautiful and intricate place.

Roger Penrose is Emeritus Rouse Ball Professor of Mathematics at the University of Oxford. He has received a number of prizes and awards, including the 1988 Wolf Prize for physics which he shared with Stephen Hawking for their joint contribution to our understanding of the universe.

Introduced by Frank Burnet or Robert Winston (tbc)
Venue Town Hall, Cheltenham
www.cheltenhamfestivals.org.uk

This event replaces "Green Revolutionary with Professor M S Swaminathan" on 8 June which due to the speakers unavailability has now been cancelled.

Information on all RSA lectures online: www.theRSA.org/events

The Royal Society for the encouragement of Arts, Manufactures & Commerce has a manifesto for the 21st century:

Encouraging enterprise

Moving towards a zero-waste society

Fostering resilient communities

Developing a capable population

Advancing global citizenship

Registered Charity No. 212424