

Ain't Misbehavin'

RSA

The Royal Society for the encouragement of
Arts, Manufactures & Commerce
RSA Wales and Western Region
Cymru a Rhanbarth Gorllewinol
Registered Charity No: 212424

A joint RSA Wales and Western Region and BIBIC event, sponsored by Hugh James Solicitors

To ASBO, or not to ASBO? - that is the question....

Would you give a 7-year-old child an anti-social behaviour order?

That in effect is what is happening today in some parts of the country. Children with learning difficulties which leave them with the understanding levels of a 7-year-old are being given ASBOs.

....And, if you would, could you then imprison them if they broke the terms of that order?

....And if you wouldn't, what is your answer to society's problem? We do have children with learning difficulties that demonstrate anti-social behaviour.

Join in the debate on Tuesday 28 February 2006
in the Millennium Stadium, Cardiff
4.00 - 6.30pm

Admission free but spaces strictly limited. Prior booking essential. Light refreshments supplied and networking opportunities before and after the debate.

Further information on this event can be obtained by ringing BIBIC on 01278 684060 or emailing behaviour@bibic.org.uk or book your place immediately by returning the slip below. Thank you.

BOOKING SLIP

Please complete this slip and return to BIBIC, Knowle Hall, Bridgwater, Somerset, TA7 8PJ and we will send your confirmation and directions by return.

Please reserveplaces at the Millennium Stadium debate on anti-social behaviour and children with learning difficulties on 28 February 2006

Name(s):

Address:

.....Postcode:

Tel No: Email address:

"Ain't Misbehavin' " is a coalition campaign facilitated by BIBIC – British Institute for Brain Injured Children. The coalition comprises many not-for-profit organisations working with young children who have behavioural problems due to learning and communication difficulties.