The images portrayed in the media are of Care Homes for older people where there is abuse and neglect. We do not see the other side of the story where the vast majority of older people receive good & high quality care. This is the first of a series of four seminars, which aim to raise awareness about the reality of life in care homes for RSA members and their guests. Each seminar will be presented by a well-respected and authoritative figure. The aim of this first session is to explore the context in which care homes for older people operate from the provider's perspective.
